

Governor Rick Scott and Doug Holder...partners in job creation. Here's what Governor Rick Scott had to say about his work with Doug Holder. "(Inaudible) is representing Doug Holder. He was very focused on making sure we help cut regulations and we've cut taxes, so he was a very good supporter. He also understands the importance of our military and our veterans. And Doug Holder's daughter, Channing, agrees with Governor Scott. "My dad is awesome, he's funny and he's sweet and we both love pizza, but that's not why you should vote for him. He also wants to do what's right for Florida and if he gets elected, I know I'll be able to find a job because he's working with Governor Scott right now to get it done. So vote for my dad, Doug Holder, for State Senate. He's awesome and if you vote for him, you will be too. Remember, vote on Tuesday, August 30th for Doug Holder or you'll get in big trouble with me. Bye. Paid by Doug Holder Republican for State Senate.
